

M70 B3 / 7.62x39 ASSAULT RIFLE

M70 B3 ORIGINAL (Auto/Semi Auto)

Assault rifle M70 B3 was created by modification of M70 B1, to provide the possibility of mounting of Russian type underbarrel grenade launchers - model BGP 40 mm.

It is a gas operated weapon, and locking system is rotating bolt, which is designed in such a manner that the rifle cannot fire before it is fully locked.

Reliability of its functioning in various environments was confirmed by strict testing methods, in accordance with military standards.

The rifle has long service life and exceptional precision, as the barrel is cold forged.

Good solutions for the ergonomics, with excellent balance of weight and compensator provide mild recoil and easy control of fire.

Fire selector has three positions: single shot, burst, safe.

Iron sights with tritium tubes provide the possibility of aiming in conditions of low visibility.

Handguards and stock are made of quality beech

All assault rifles made in Zastava Arms in caliber 7.62 x 39 mm use the same metal magazine with the capacity of 30 rounds.
