MARITIME SECURITY

Maritime security has become an important requirement for merchant vessels in today's time. Increasing shipping piracy threats have resulted in huge losses for shipping conglomerates around the world.

250 Full PMSC Equipment (1000 Rifles at sea)

+300 Expertise Personnel in action

+100 Satisfied Clients (as of Dec 2020)

24/7 Service and Support

In order to tackle this problem successfully, many new companies have started to provide maritime security services in arms, which are custom made for the present modern piracy at sea.

Across the world, there are many such Companies that command unique respect for the stellar security services they offer.

But, what is this that makes today a maritime security Company trustable?

What are the criteria that you must set in order to decide if this or that maritime security Company is good and effective in all your demands?

What do you expect a maritime security Company to fulfil in the order for you to feel safe and secure?

Maritime Security is not just another business! Maritime Security is based on knowledge, methodology, proved equipment, technology, accuracy, well-trained personnel and highly experienced managers in Defense, Security and Safety sectors.

With the aid of maritime protection offered under such qualifications, shipping conglomerates can be assured of plenteous security to its crew and cargo.

Oceanic navigation routes are necessary and cannot be done without. Since shipping piracy has become an unchecked evil in certain water parts and is spreading towards other oceanic networks, opting for maritime security services has become a choice that cannot be overlooked

Think well before you decide WHO will keep your property and your crew safe

We are deeply involved in the Maritime Security sector as we assist, advise and suggest reputed PMSCs we work with to our clients in order to be really safe and secure and not just to feel safe and secure!

MARITIME CYBER SECURITY

Every day, all around the world, thousands of IT systems are compromised.

Some are attacked purely for the kudos of doing so, others for political motives, but most commonly they are attacked to steal money or commercial secrets.

Our experience suggests that in practice, few companies have got this right. And if your company doesn't have it right, your IT systems may have already been compromised, attackers could already have your new Company projects, bidding offers or research plans; they may already be running your process control systems.

Whatever business you are in, you all rely on internet correspondence.

You communicate with your ships, local agents, Charterers, suppliers, various authorities, Classes, P&I clubs, Ports, etc, in other words this is your most medium used for carrying out your business, rely upon it for your logistical support.

In simple words, the internet brings immeasurable benefits. But, you cannot escape the fact that it also brings new risks.

About 80% of known attacks would be defeated by embedding basic information security practices for your people, processes, and technology where companies adopt these steps it has made a tangible difference to their vulnerability to cyber-attack.
